OBJECTIVES

The overall purpose of this course is to update and further one's knowledge, diagnosis, and treatment of various ophthalmic disorders as well as acquire and discuss new techniques and innovations in ophthalmology. Additionally, attendees will be able to explain state and federal advocacy efforts by the American Academy of Ophthalmology in advancing the profession of ophthalmology, patient care, and safety.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Physicians practicing in the area of ophthalmology.

CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION

The Texas Medical Association is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Texas Medical Association designates this live activity for a maximum of 8 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

This course has been designated by TMA for 1 credit in medical ethics and/or professional responsibility.

REGISTRATION

Use the enclosed form to register for the meeting. TOA members may attend at the reduced rate.

RISK MANAGEMENT DISCOUNTS

Physicians insured with Ophthalmic Mutual Insurance Company (OMIC) or Texas Medical Liability Trust (TMLT) may earn professional liability insurance discounts by participating in approved continuing education activities as follows:

OMIC: OMIC insureds who are also current members of the TOA can earn a maximum 10% risk management premium discount by participating in the live cosponsored program "OMIC: Lessons Learned: When Safety Protocols Fail" on Sunday, May 5. OMIC insureds who are not current TOA members earn a 5% discount.

TMLT: Physicians insured with Texas Medical Liability Trust may earn a 3% discount for attending BOTH (2 hours total) presentations: "TMLT: Complexities in Beginning and Ending the Physician-Patient Relationship: When Can We Call It Quits?" on Saturday, 4-5 pm and "OMIC: Lessons Learned: When Safety Protocols Fail" on Sunday, 8-9 am. This discount will be applied to the physician's next eligible policy period.

Sleeping Rooms: While the meeting will be held next door in the convention center, sleeping rooms are at the OMNI Dallas. The buildings are connected by a skybridge. The larger Texas Medical Association TexMed conference will be held simultaneously, but our meeting is separate. Please use the Texas Medical Association room block, but there is no need to register your attendance with TMA.
